During the summer it was said by nearly every person who expressed himself that corn would not bring more than $1.25 per barrel at gathering time. It is now being delivered in Columbia at $1.75 and $2.00, and it is said it will bring a higher price by the middle of January.

JUSTIFIABLE.

Azure Damron Promptly Acquitted for Killing Irvine Bottoms.
Azure Damron, who killed Irvine Bottoms last Monday night week was given an examining trial before Judge J. W. Butler Saturday, the 15th inst. The trial commenced at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, consuming the remainder of the day. Eight witnesses were introduced, six for the State and two for the defendant. The testimony differed but little from the statement published in the News of last week, the whole of it showing conclusively that Mr. Damron was perfectly justifiable in shooting, and he was promptly acquitted. At the time the defendant shot, Bottoms was advancing rapidly upon him, open knife in hand which remained tightly clinched by his fingers after death came. There were only three witnesses present when the shots, three in number, were fired, and strange to say no one of the three saw the shooting, though there was no question as to who fired. Only one of the shots took effect—in the breast a little to the right of the heart. Death followed in a few minutes. The prosecution was conducted by County Attorney James Garnett, Jr., and Baker & Winfrey; the defense by Messrs. J. F. Montgomery and Rollin Hurt.
It is but a short time until the Christmas holidays will be here—a time when the weightier business affairs are suspended for a few days and joy and mirth hold sway. We do not deem it derogatory to the moral standing and good intentions of the young men in this section to remind them that these festive days are dangerous to a certain degree. Inducements may be offered to drink and to engage in other forms of vice that leads to the same destructive end and to be on your guard will be of material worth in such times. There may be some young men who have planned for a lively time during the holidays and have decided to use some whisky for this purpose, if so, we trust the latter will be omitted. Whisky leads to degradation and ruin and you can not afford to trifle with so terrible a destroyer. Be careful, keep sober and keep your companions from temptations and all will end well.
Invitations to the marriage of Mr. J. C. Strange to Miss Lula White, which will occur at the Presbyterian church, Wednesday evening, December 26, 1900, have been received by the friends of the contracting parties throughout the city. The intended groom is associated with Mr. W. D. Jones in conducting the publication of the Columbia Spectator and has been a permanent citizen of this place about a year. He has made quite a number of friends during his stay, all of whom commend him for the honorable service he is about to take. The intended bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. White, and is a handsome, intelligent and popular young lady. The News, in advance of the happy event, extends its best wishes, hoping that the young couple may live long and be prosperous in all their undertakings.
The business of Columbia is on the increase, and its reputation as a place of activity is spreading over the State. We are now having a furniture factory on a large scale. Mr. W. R. Myers, of Greensburg, and Mr. Allen Pile, of this place, have formed a partnership and will prosecute the business. They have purchased the lot of James T. Page, known as the Ethan Smith property, and will at once put up a furniture factory. They paid four hundred dollars for the lot, and the business will furnish work for a number of hands.
Prisoners in the Greensburg jail undertook to make their escape last Wednesday night by setting fire to their bedclothing. The alarm was sounded, rousing a great many people, and the fire was soon extinguished.

Those who owe town taxes are notified that the 6 cent penalty took effect Dec. 1st. I must have the taxes or will levy on property.
GEO. COFFEY, Collector.
All the business men of Columbia and vicinity are requested to be at the courthouse this (Tuesday) night. The object of the meeting is to organize a Commercial Club to further advance the interest of this town.
Strayed.—From my premises on the 8th, a 3-year-old, dehorned brindle Jersey heifer. A little slim-bodied and rather wild. Please notify me.
N. H. WAGGENER, Milltown, Ky.
Gov. Hindman has received another letter concerning the proposed railroad through Adair county. It is confidently believed that there is something in the project, and our people must wake up to the importance of this duty.
Ex-Gov. P. H. Leslie has been sorely bereft in the last year. Several months ago his beloved wife died and last week he lost a daughter and son. Gov. Leslie is now 82 years old, and his afflictions are bearing heavily upon him.
Mr. H. K. Alexander sold quite a number of cattle in Boyle county last week, realizing a good profit. Horace is one of the most prosperous traders in Cumberland county, and can tell at a glance what a steer will bring on the market.
Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. M. Cravens' hospitable home was the happy gathering place of quite a number of the young married ladies of Columbia. A delightful lunch was spread and the company entertained in a royal manner.
Owing to a Baptist meeting at Milltown on the 5th Sunday in December, Tobias Huffaker's appointment at Gradyville will be changed from that date to Saturday night before the 4th Sunday in December, and also on Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m.
If the people who own property fronting the streets would do as Judge Hancock the walking would be much smoother. He has widened and made a nice pavement in front of his hotel which adds greatly to the appearance of the property.
Mr. J. W. Richards employed some parties to bore a well for which he paid $300.00. They struck rock 14 feet below surface and at the depth of 18 feet the substance for which they were boring. The well has 1 1/2 feet of excellent soft water.
Next Tuesday will be Christmas day. If you have led the little ones to believe that Santa Clause will be sure to bring them certain articles, see that they are not disappointed. Make their little hearts glad and be happy yourself over their rejoicing.
Mr. Jo Hill reports business good in his line in Russell and Pulaski counties. Mr. Hill left Tuesday for Western localities for the purpose of saddling and harnessing the merchants. One thing certain they can't buy from a better man.
Mr. T. A. Murrell will put a residence on Burksville street. He recently purchased of Mr. M. Cravens a lot just above the home of Mrs. Laura Powell upon which he will build. We understand that Mr. Jo F. Patterson has contracted to do the work.
The Farmers Home Fire Insurance Company, Junction City, Ky., $200,000 strong. Insures all kinds of property except steam mills, hemp and tobacco. Rates reasonable. Insures against Fire, Lightning and Wind.
Z. M. STAPLES, County Director.
T. A. MURRELL, Agent.
A. N. WELLS, for many years with the Continental, General Manager.

Mr. W. F. Jeffries returned from Nashville last Thursday night. It was his first visit to this beautiful Southern city and he was perfectly delighted with his trip. During his stay in the city he met and was the guest of Mr. Jas. S. Dunbar, a native of Russell county, and a prominent Wholesale Boot and Shoe man of Nashville. Mr. Dunbar left Russell county about twenty years ago, comparatively in poor circumstances, but industry, popularity and perseverance have brought him up in the financial world, and he is now living comfortably on "easy street." He owns a palatial residence, elegantly furnished and has one of the most hospitable and homelike wives in the city. Mr. Jeffries also met Mr. J. B. Yates, a former citizen of Columbia. He is prosecuting the sale of the American scale, and he is doing a good business. Jim made inquiry about everybody at his old home, and expressed a desire to be with us in a short time. The business men of Nashville are very much interested in the proposition to build a railroad through this section of Kentucky, and have subscribed thousands of dollars to advance the project. The city will also take upon herself a bonded debt in order to rapidly prosecute the enterprise. Mr. Jeffries says the people of Nashville are in earnest about the road, and in his opinion definite arrangements will be made at a very early day.
Mr. R. M. Grissom, a popular young man of this county, who left us several weeks ago, has located in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and is engaged in the livery business, having purchased a stable a few days after his arrival. We commend him to the citizens of Guthrie as a gentleman worthy of their esteem and confidence. He was born and reared a few miles from Columbia, but his reputation for honesty extends throughout Adair county. He is strictly a moral man, and is a Mason of high standing, one who believes and practices the teachings of that noble institution. We hope Bob will grow rich in a few years, then return to the home of his nativity and enjoy the wealth accumulated in the far West.
Dr. E. B. Atkinson, a prominent physician of Cane Valley, and a popular gentleman otherwise, will be married to Miss Frances Hancock, an accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hancock, at 10:30 a. m., Wednesday, December 26, 1900. The couple will immediately leave for Barren county, Dr. Atkinson's old home, where they will remain several days, and will be at their residence in Cane Valley after January 10, 1901. Miss Hancock has been a leading factor in society circles, and her presence will be greatly missed by the young people. With this notice go our best wishes to the happy couple who are soon to be made one. Invitations follow the date of this paper.
The following letter appeared in the Dixon Journal, and we take it that it was written by a little daughter of Mr. Thos. S. Page, a brother of Dr. J. N. Page, of this place;
"Dear Santa Clause—Bring me a doll and a doll buggy and a negro doll and a dresser and a stoye, three little chairs and one little table and one little cradle and a sack of bananas, a sack of oranges and a sack of raisins and a little looking glass. "Onie. Page."

No election having been held for a Municipal Board, the County Judge will have to appoint a set of gentlemen to look after the affairs of the town, January 1, 1901.
The Missionary Institute held at Breeding on the 11th and 12th was well attended and was a very enjoyable and profitable meeting. Rev. Fosket, of Louisville, preached an able sermon.
We learn from Mr. T. R. Stults, who is in the business, that prices in staves are looking up. The firm of Page, Hurt & Stults hope to dispose of many thousand during the rise.
We understand that Mr. S. H. Mitchell is on a trade to sell his farm lying between Columbia and Gradyville. It is also said that he will put a residence on the tract of land purchased of Mr. W. H. Hudson, which is in the suburbs of town.
F. T. Smith, of Louisville, and G. T. Sherrill, of Columbia, are buying dark tobacco and paying the highest market price. The farmers of Adair county will please them greatly by calling at the Marcum House with their samples for inspection.
Now is a fine time for disturbing the earth preparatory for a crop of corn next year. Land that is turned in the fall or early winter usually produces much more than when left for Spring. This is not advice to our good farmers, but a mere recital of a fact.
We have heard there will be a "Watch Meeting" held in the Methodist church, this city, the last night in this year. While waiting for the old year to pass out and the New Year to enter, there will be singing, praying and other religious exercises.
We understand that Mr. W. H. Wilson, who has just returned from Louisville, has decided to locate in the city, and will remove his family this week. We do not know the business he will engage in, but trust, as he has determined to leave us, that the change will prove profitable to him.
Miss Fannie Smythe, who has been very sick with typhoid fever, is improving, and desires to say to her patrons at Montpelier that she will open school as soon as her health will admit, but will have to postpone it for a few weeks.
Smith Bros., of Louisville, who are buying tobacco in Adair county, have already purchased thirty or forty thousand pounds and think they will have no trouble in getting together enough to make one hundred and fifty or two hundred hogheads. They will commence prizing at once and will have it all on the market by June.
Messrs. Vanmeter & McLain of Spencer county have engaged in the mill business near Camp Knox. They are now getting in the machinery and will be ready for wheat by the first of January. Their mill will have capacity for 35 barrels per day. They are well versed in the business and will doubtless have a good trade.
Some weeks ago this paper suggested to the farmers of Adair county that it would be to their advantage to form clubs to advance their interests. Since writing the suggestion we have noticed reports from various clubs in the State, claiming that they are very beneficial and urging organizations throughout the State.
Who Preaches Next Sunday.
T. F. Walton, this city.
W. S. Dudgeon, Bethlehem.
F. C. Shearer, Hutchinson school-house.
H. T. Jesse, Pierces' chapel.
T. Huffaker, Neatsburg.
G. W. Montgomery, Kniffey.
W. P. Gordon, Milltown.
T. L. Hulise, Pleasant Ridge.
W. B. Cave, Liberty.

At the union services to be held at the Presbyterian church, Sunday night, the 23rd inst., an interesting program will be rendered, consisting of music, speeches, etc. The following gentlemen have consented to deliver addresses: S. L. Powell, Mont Yarberry, W. D. Jones, Paul Symthe, Gordon Montgomery, W. A. Coffey, and perhaps others. The committee on music is as follows: Misses Mattie Taylor, Sallie Baker; Mesdames Kizzie Murrell, Corda Rosenfield.
An interesting law suit will be called in the Russell county court this week. Mr. Bryan Nelson, who died several months ago, left no will, but an instrument of writing held by a young woman, said to be the deceased affianced, will be produced and claimed by her as the will of the decedent. The defense will be represented by Mr. Henry Aaron and Jas. Garnett, Jr., and the plaintiff by Bryan Stone, Rollin Hurt James N. Meadows. There is a considerable estate involved.
Two valuable farms for sale:—One known as the "Galtner Miller farm" containing 180 acres. The other known as the "Payne Farm" on which I live, containing 220 acres. These farms are in a good state of cultivation with good dwellings, out buildings, etc., lying on the waters of Glenfork, about three miles South-east of Columbia, on the Jamestown road in a good neighborhood. For particulars apply to Anderson Holladay, Columbia, Ky.
The season has arrived when the foolish young man fills his hide with "colin varnish," sticks a pistol in his pocket and goes out "swell-cutting." To envy him his like have only to take a quiet corner, keep their ears picked and hear giddy girls speak of him as being "cute," "up-to-date," "just simply lovely." And the young man who is making a good living whistles and continues to "saw wood."
Miss Carrie Page entertained quite a number of her young friends last Thursday evening, the occasion being the anniversary of her seventeenth birthday. Refreshments were served and several hours most delightfully spent. In testimony of the high estimate in which Miss Carrie is held, she was the recipient of many handsome and valuable presents.
The Methodist people of the town and community are preparing to send a nice box of useful articles, such as clothing, flour, meat, sugar, coffee, in fact everything useful in house keeping, to their Orphan's Home in Louisville. They ask all those who wish to contribute to please leave it at the Parsonage by Friday evening. Let all help this worthy institution.
The farmers of this State will hold an institute at Lebanon December 22 and 23. The Louisville & Nashville Railroad will sell return tickets for one-third fare. You pay full fare going and take a receipt from the agent at starting point. Present this to the secretary of the institute who will give you a certificate of attendance. Adair county should be represented.
The Christian people of Columbia have made it the practice for several years to see that all the poor children in the vicinity are remembered on Christmas-day. We take it that this custom adopted in the past will be continued in the future, and that on next Tuesday every little boy and girl in the neighborhood of this town will receive a present.
Mr. Henry M. Kemp has tendered his resignation as traveling salesman for Green & Son, wholesale boot and shoe men, Louisville. Mr. Kemp is undecided as to the business he will engage in, but to all probability he will find employment at home. He will either engage in business for himself or do business for some other gentleman.
The Courier-Journal and this paper, $1.25 a year.
